

Anoint Your Body with a Jubilant New Cream

Jubilation Ultra Nourishing Body Cream

A deeply nourishing body cream with an inspirational fragrance has just been released by Antipodes®.

Jubilation Ultra Nourishing Body Cream replenishes skin with a sublime combination of pure plant oils, with a highly effective base of 100% pure avocado oil.

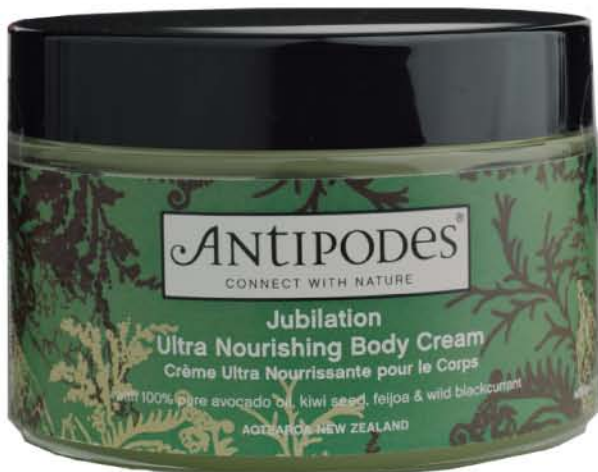

Meadowfoam provides essential Omegas 3, 6 and 9 which unite in a ratio that skin happily avocado oil) join wild blackcurrant essential oil to provide the ultimate daily nutritional skin boost.

Many Antipodes® devotees have been enchanted by Jubilation Ultra Nourishing Body Cream's fresh, sub-tropical fragrance which is an aromatic blend of exotic feijoa fruit and wild blackcurrant.

The body cream is optimally applied by anointing the skin at sunrise, noon and twilight. For silky and healthy skin, linger where dry skin calls.

Jubilation Ultra Nourishing Body Cream has had an extraordinary reception since its launch in October 2007 in New Zealand, where the Antipodes® certified organic skincare and natural skincare ranges are created and made.

Antipodes® green beauty ethos includes full commitment to the traceability of sustainable ingredients, ecologically sound values, the use of renewable resources & to making the lightest of carbon footprints.
