Two stunning new wash products made from truly green formulations.

Namasté hand Wash and Nirvana Body Wash feature natural, native New Zealand ingredients combined with exotic, fresh aromatics to appeal to the whole family.

In line with the company's enduring natural philosophy, Antipodes® has formulated these effective wash preparations without the use of petrochemicals sodium lauryl/lureth sulphate or ammonium lauryl/lureth sulphate, rendering them far safer and less toxic to use than the majority of wash products on the market.

Nirvana Body Wash offers the ultimate body wash experience, combining a potent cocktail of antibacterial harekeke (New Zealand flax); Roman Chamomile; the antioxidants parsley seed, green tea, blackcurrant and kiwised oil; and hibiscus flower to exfoliate gently. Escape the urban with its intoxicatingly fresh fragrances of spearmint and cardamon.

Namasté Hand Wash naturally cleanses and nourishes with pure coconut oil, green tea and parsley seed extracts leaving hands soft, hydrated and protected. Oil of New Zealand orchard-grown kiwifruit offers antibacterial activity and high levels of vitamins C and E. Immerse your senses with unparalleled scents of lime rind and black pepper.

Antipodes® has stepped outside the square with an endearing new label design to introduce these two new products. The certified organic and natural beauty brand has long been enchanted with New Zealand native birds and the new labels featuring the Tui and fantail capture the bird's mystical and playful natures.

East meets west in the product names, which are positive affirmations of Eastern culture and evoke the spirituality found in nature, bringing a new enjoyment to your washroom.
